The Eastern Shore Hospital Center is the first psychiatric hospital in Maryland to incorporate the treatment mall model for delivery of its clinical services. The mission of the hospital is to provide the highest quality adult inpatient mental health services to residents of all nine counties of Maryland's Eastern Shore by effectively managing hospital resources and coordinating therapeutic treatment programs for patients. Our vision is to combine the most effective treatment approach with a caring environment that enables patients to achieve their greatest potential.

THE GREAT CHESAPEAKE BAY WELLNESS RACE & FAMILY WALK raises funds for direct patient services at the Eastern Shore Hospital Center under the auspices of the Center's Auxiliary. The Auxiliary endeavors to support the patient horticulture therapy program, indigent patient services and numerous other programs that greatly enhance their personal lives.
