

What experience are you giving to your patients?

64% of people who attempt suicide visit their doctor during the month before their attempt.

Doctor visits can
be critical points
of intervention
with a patient
who is considering
suicide.

