

The Counseling Compact Commission has issued draft rules for public comment.

The public comment period begins March 17, 2026, and ends April 24, 2026, at 11:59 p.m. Mountain Time (MT).

The following draft rules are open for public comment:

- Chapter 10: Supervised Experience
- Chapter 8: Conversion (comment period extended)
- Chapter 9: Consistent Credentialing (comment period extended)

Members of the public and interested stakeholders are encouraged to review the proposed rules and submit comments during this period.

Instructions for submitting public comments are available on the Counseling Compact Commission's website:

<https://counselingcompact.gov/compact-commission/rulemaking/>

This notice is provided in accordance with Compact requirements, which require member states to publicly post draft rules and provide an opportunity for public comment.