(i) Appeal; hearing. –(1)(i) Except as provided in paragraph (2) of this subsection, an individual may appeal a decision of a licensing authority to suspend or deny the individual's license in accordance with Title 10, Subtitle 2 of the State Government Article.

(ii) At a hearing under this paragraph, the issue shall be limited to whether the Administration has mistaken the identity of the individual whose license has been suspended or denied.

(k) Reinstatement of license—Duty of licensing authority. – A licensing authority shall immediately reinstate any license suspended, or process an application for any license denied, under this section if:

- (1) notified by the Administration that the license should be reinstated; and
- (2) the individual otherwise qualifies for the license.

On August 5, 2013, the Board sent an unexecuted copy of this Order of Suspension of Certificate to Practice Supervised Alcohol and Drug Counseling (hereinafter "CSC-AD") for Delinquent Child Support (hereinafter "Order of Suspension") to the Respondent's last known address registered with the Board and also to the address on the request form that the Board received from the Administration. Accompanying the unexecuted Order of Suspension was a cover letter giving Respondent written notice of his right to contest his identity in writing within thirty days of the date of the letter; that is, to contest that he was not the of Jeffrey C. Faw, Certificate Number SC1847, named by the Administration as the individual whose certificate should be suspended for delinquent child support. In addition, the letter also gave Respondent written notice that if he did not submit to the Board a written contest of mistaken identity on or before the Board would execute this Order of Suspension as written. The Respondent did not submit a written contest regarding mistaken identity to the Board by Thursday, September 5, 2013.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The Board issued a certificate to practice supervised alcohol and drug counseling to the Respondent on January 4, 2012. His certificate is currently active and is scheduled to expire on January 31, 2014.

2. On or about July 1, 2013, the Board received a written request from the Baltimore City Office of Child Support Enforcement of the Child Support Enforcement Administration of the Maryland Department of Human Services (the "Administration"), entitled "Request to Suspend or Deny Certificate for Delinquent Child Support"(hereinafter "Request"), which requested that the Board suspend the CSC-AD certificate of the Respondent for delinquent child support under the authority Fam. Law § 10-119.3. That Request stated that, as of July 1, 2013 the arrearage amount of child support that the Respondent owed was $437.85.

3. Fam. Law § 10-119.3(e)(2) & (h)(1) requires that the Board suspend the certificate of the Respondent upon notification by the Administration and after sending written notice to the Respondent of the proposed suspension of Respondent's certificate and of the Respondent's right "to contest the identity of the individual whose certificate is proposed to be suspended."

4. On August 5, 2013, the Board sent an unexecuted copy of this Order of Suspension of Certificate to Practice Supervised Alcohol and Drug Counseling for Delinquent Child Support to the Respondent's last known address registered with the Board and also to the address on the Administration's Request form. Included with the unexecuted Order of Suspension was a letter giving Respondent written notice of his right to contest, in writing to the Board, within thirty days of the date of the letter, his identity; that is, to contest that he was not the Jeffrey C. Faw, Certificate Number SC1847, named by the Administration as the individual whose certificate should be suspended for delinquent child support. In addition, the letter also gave Respondent written notice that if he did not submit to the Board a written contest of mistaken identity on or before September 5, 2013, the Board would execute this Order of Suspension as written.

5. The Respondent did not submit to the Board a written contest regarding mistaken identity by September 5, 2013.

6. Having given the Respondent the statutorily required written notice of the Board's intent to suspend his certificate and of his right to contest identity pursuant to Fam. Law § 10-119.3(h)(1), and having not received a written response or contest from the Respondent regarding mistaken identity, the Board is statutorily required to suspend the Respondent's certificate, pursuant to by Fam. Law § 10-119.3(e)(2).

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Based on the foregoing Findings of Fact, the Board concludes that, pursuant to Fam. Law § 10-119.3(e)(2)(i), it is statutorily required to suspend the Respondent's CSC-AD certificate until the Board receives notification from the Administration that the Respondent's certificate should be reinstated and the Respondent is otherwise qualified to be certified, pursuant to Fam. Law § 10-119.3(k)(1)-(2).
