BOARD CHAIR

Sherryl Silberman

- Sherryl Silberman and Stanley Weinstein attended a meeting with Secretary Robert N. Neall. The topics of discussion were: A new way of documenting healthcare in the State of Maryland and seeking ways for boards to work together.
- Sherryl Silberman informed the Board that the three executive Board positions will be vacant effective July 1, 2020. Those positions are Board Chair, Vice Board Chair and Board Secretary. In order to allow the new executive team to attend the ASWB conference for new Board members which is held in March, she suggests the Board vote on the three positions at the March Board meeting. Please submit all ballots to Stanley Weinstein. Remember you may elect yourself for any of the open positions.
- Sherryl Silberman reminded the Board members that the financial disclosure forms must be completed by April 30.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Stanley E. Weinstein

- Arthur Flax asked the Board to support the amendment to his proposed Bill- Involuntary Admission that currently allows (2) physicians or (1) physician and (1) psychologist or (1) physician and (1) psychiatric nurse practitioner the ability to involuntarily admit/commit an individual. Mr. Flax is proposing that a trained Clinical social worker be added to the list of health care providers. After further discussion the Board voted to support the Bill with amendments to add a LCSW-C trained social worker.
- Stanley Weinstein informed the Board he was contacted in reference to the "Delivery of Medications vs Distribution of Medications by a social worker. A discussion was held and it was recommended that the Stature and Regulations Committee review a memorandum from the Pharmacy Board.
- Gender Designation on Board Forms is postponed until further notice.
