

IN THE MATTER OF THOMAS DRAKE, III APPLICANT CASE NUMBER: 18-0013	* * * *	BEFORE THE MARYLAND STATE BOARD FOR THE CERTIFICATION OF RESIDENTIAL CHILD CARE PROGRAM PROFESSIONALS

CONSENT ORDER OF REPRIMAND

On or about July 18, 2017, Thomas Drake, III (the “Applicant”) submitted an initial certification application for Residential Child and Youth Care Practitioner to the Maryland Board for the Certification of Residential Child Care Program Professionals (the “Board”). Upon completion of a criminal history record check as required by Md. Code Ann. Health Occ. Article (“H.O.”) § 20-302, the Board discovered that the Applicant had a criminal history and the Board initiated an investigation. Based on information received by the Board during the investigation, the Board requested that the Applicant submit a narrative explanation of his criminal history by email dated September 12, 2017. On October 6, 2017, the Applicant submitted to the Board a narrative statement and subsequently provided supporting documentation regarding his arrests, charges, and convictions.

Based upon the Applicant’s certification application, the court documents acquired during the Board’s investigation, and the Applicant’s narrative statement, the Board voted to offer a Consent Order of Reprimand to the Applicant, in lieu of issuing Charges for violations of the Maryland Residential Child Care Program Professionals Act (the “Act”), H.O. § 20-101 et seq. Specifically, the Board finds that the Applicant appears to have violated H.O. §§ 20-313(b)(1) (“Fraudulently or deceptively obtains or attempts to obtain a certificate for a...residential child and youth care practitioner...”) and (4) (“Is convicted of or pleads guilty or nolo contendere to a felony or to a crime involving moral turpitude, whether or not any appeal or other proceeding is pending to have the conviction or plea set aside”). As a result of that offer, the Applicant and the Board agreed to the following Consent Order.

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Board finds that:

1. On or about July 18, 2017, the Applicant submitted to the Board an initial certification application for Residential Child and Youth Care Practitioner (the “Application”).
2. On the Application, the Applicant answered “NO” to Question 4: “Have you pled guilty, to, [sic] nolo contendere, been convicted of, or received probation before judgment for any criminal act (excluding misdemeanor traffic violations)?”
3. Court records obtained by the Board show that the Applicant had the following criminal convictions:
 - a. On or about January 10, 1991, in the Circuit Court for Baltimore City, Docket No. 324407B6, the Applicant was convicted of felony Robbery with a Deadly Weapon/Street (for $2,460.00). The Applicant was sentenced to ten (10) years, with all but four (4) years suspended, and ordered to three (3) years supervised probation upon release.
 - b. On or about August 29, 2000, in the Circuit Court for Baltimore City, Docket No. 991001654101, the Applicant was convicted of felony Illegal Possession of a Pistol. The Applicant was sentenced to eighteen (18) months incarceration.
 - c. On or about April 7, 2003, in the Circuit Court for Baltimore City, Docket No. 021001574230, the Applicant was convicted of felony Possession of Controlled Dangerous Substance (Cocaine) with Intent to Manufacture/Distribute. The Applicant was sentenced to four (4) years, with all but one (1) year suspended, and ordered to three (3) years supervised probation upon release.

4. On or about October 6, 2017, in response to the September 12, 2017 request by the Board, the Applicant submitted a narrative dated August 19, 2016 to the Board addressing his criminal history.¹ The Applicant stated that he realized that he “wasn’t thinking about the outcome, but [he] lea[r]ned so much for [sic] that it’s not fair to take from people,” and that possessing a handgun “was a bad decision.”

5. When asked why the Applicant answered “NO” to Question 4, the Applicant stated that he “[m]ust have overlooked that spot” and indicated that he provided supportive documentation of his criminal history.²

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Based on the foregoing findings of fact, the Board concludes that the Applicant violated Md. Code Ann., Health Occ. § 20-313(b):

- (1) Fraudulently or deceptively obtains or attempts to obtain a certificate for a program administrator or residential child and youth care practitioner, or for another; ...
- (6) Is convicted of or pleads guilty or nolo contendere to a felony or to a crime involving moral turpitude, whether or not any appeal or other proceeding is pending to have the conviction or plea set aside.
