DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH

Self-Directed Services Budget Allocation

- Authorization of funding for Medicaid waiver services
- Based on the Person-Centered Plan total plan cost noted in LTSS*Maryland*
- Used to develop the Self-Directed Services Budget Sheet based on the services and units approved and authorized in the Person-Centered Plan and budget allocation

Self-Direction Authorities

Employer Authority

- Participant chooses rate to pay employees (within Reasonable and Customary rates)
- Participant chooses benefits that are provided to employees
- Employer taxes must also be budgeted

Budget Authority

- Participant chooses vendor or DDA Provider
- Participant negotiates rate of service with vendor or DDA Provider (within Reasonable and Customary rates)
- Employer taxes are included in the rate

Reasonable and Customary Rates for Providers (1 of 2)

- Participants are responsible for paying an agreed rate
- Participants can negotiate lower rates
- Providers are independent professionals or businesses

Reasonable and Customary Rates for Providers (2 of 2)

- Participants can increase the rate they pay providers
- Participants are not required to increase provider rates
- Rate increases can be based on performance
- Rate increases can be offered at any time during the year

Reasonable and Customary Rates for Vendors (1 of 2)

- Participants self-directing their Medicaid waiver services can hire vendors for certain services
- Participants are responsible for paying an agreed vendor rate
- Participants can negotiate lower rates with vendors
- Vendors are independent professionals or businesses

Reasonable and Customary Rates for Vendors (2 of 2)

- Participants can increase the rate they pay vendors within reasonable and customary standards for the Medicaid waiver service that the vendor provides
- Participants are not required to increase vendor rates
- Rate increases can be based on performance
- Rate increases can be offered at any time during the year

Reasonable and Customary Wages for Employees (1 of 2)

- Participants can hire employees to provide certain Medicaid waiver services
- Wages, benefits, employer taxes, and all other employer-related costs are paid by the participant's budget
- Participants can hire employees between the minimum wage and the Reasonable and Customary standard for employees
- Participants should hire enough staff to meet their assessed needs (overtime must be minimized)

Reasonable and Customary Wages for Employees (2 of 2)

- Participants can offer pay increases to employees, but pay increases are not required
 - Increases can occur at any time in the year
 - Increases can be based on staff performance
- Exception Wage can be requested
 - Exception requests are submitted by the Coordinator of Community Services
 - The Coordinator of Community Services must use the DDA's Wage Exception Form

Additional Employee Costs

• Employer taxes and other fringe expenses (14%) must be budgeted for all employees

Benefits must be budgeted each year based on the participant's benefit policies

The Self-Directed Services Budget Sheet

- Coordinators of Community Services facilitate the completion of the Self-Directed Services Budget Sheet
- Support Brokers never complete the Self-Directed Services Budget Sheet
- Best practice: team meeting, facilitated by Coordinator of Community Services
- Support Brokers may offer input, particularly in areas related to hiring and managing employees (Human Resources)
