SUMMARY OF ARGUMENTS AND TESTIMONY

The State, through Administrative Prosecutor Victoria Pepper, AAG, presented the following arguments at the July 10, 2014 evidentiary hearing. The State argued that the Respondent, a licensed massage therapist, engaged in sexual misconduct contrary to the moral and ethical values of the profession as well as the Board's statute. The Respondent was convicted on two counts of Second Degree Assault and Fourth Degree Sex Offense in the District Court for Baltimore County, and was sentenced to six months incarceration, suspended, and placed on supervised probation for one (1) year. The State argued that under Maryland law, the Respondent cannot collaterally attack his conduct after being convicted by a court. The State further argued that based on this conviction by the court, the Respondent failed to abide by the Board's Code of Ethics for massage therapists by committing a crime of moral turpitude against a client. The State pointed to the judge's ruling in the Respondent's criminal case that states that the Respondent is not to seek employment or be employed in massage therapy or the health care fields. Accordingly, the State argued that permanent revocation of the Respondent's license is warranted due to his convictions. The State did not call any witnesses for testimony.

The Respondent, through counsel Carol Daisey, Esq., presented the following arguments at the July 10, 2014 evidentiary hearing. In response to the criminal convictions, Respondent's counsel informed the Board that after an appeal of the District Court decision, the criminal charge for fourth degree sex offense was not prosecuted by the State, and the Respondent entered an Alford plea for second degree assault, which it not an admission of guilt. Respondent's counsel added that this plea was made in the presence of the victim and with her agreement. Respondent's counsel argued that the Respondent agreed to an Alford plea for the second degree assault charge in an attempt to get the matter behind him. Respondent's counsel further argued that the deciding judge's ruling that prohibited the Respondent from working as a massage therapist was a specific probationary term, and only applicable during his one year supervised probation. Respondent's counsel informed the Board that the ruling judge instructed the Respondent's counsel to file a motion to modify the decision after ninety (90) days, and that the judge is willing to consider a probation before judgment if the Respondent complies with his probationary terms in the interim. Based on these arguments, Respondent's counsel asked that the Board consider a sanction that is less than permanent revocation.

The Respondent testified on his own behalf. The Respondent testified that he has not practiced massage therapy since his May 20, 2014 Alford plea for second degree assault. The Respondent testified that since that time, he has been working for a catering company. The Respondent read a letter of reference from the owner of the catering company he is currently working for. The Respondent confirmed that he was convicted of the second degree assault charge, and that he has been reporting for probation every two weeks and has been following all conditions. The Respondent testified that the conviction has changed his life and has brought a lot of things into perspective. The Respondent testified that the conviction has also affected him financially, as he paid his own way to obtain his massage license and has not been able to practice due to his criminal charges. The Respondent also testified that he has learned from the experience and hopes to one day return to practicing massage. The Respondent testified that if he were permitted to maintain his massage therapy license, he would only deal with long-term patients under the supervision of a chiropractor or physician, rather than temporary or one-time clients. The Respondent also testified that based on the result of the criminal court conviction, he is not a registered sex offender.

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Board makes the following Findings of Fact based on the foregoing record:

1. At all times relevant hereto, the Respondent was licensed to practice massage therapy in the State of Maryland. The Respondent was originally licensed to practice massage therapy in the State of Maryland on September 8, 2011, under License Number M04652. The Respondent's licensure is current until October 31, 2014.
2. The Respondent was employed by a spa ("Facility A")<sup>1</sup> in Baltimore County on the date of the incident that gave rise to the Board's investigation.
3. The Board initiated an investigation of the Respondent after receiving information that a client (the "Client") at Facility A complained that the Respondent sexually assaulted her during a massage session.
4. Immediately after complaining to Facility A staff, the Client reported the incident to Baltimore County police who presented to Facility A and took the Client's and the Respondent's statements.
5. Based on the Client's allegations, on or about July 10, 2013, the Respondent was charged with Fourth Degree Sex Offense, in violation of Md. Code Ann., Crim. Law §3-308(b)(1), and Second Degree Assault, in violation of Md. Code Ann., Crim. Law §3-203, in the Maryland District Court for Baltimore County.
6. On or about December 4, 2013, a trial was held on the Respondent's criminal case in the District Court for Baltimore County. The Respondent was represented by counsel and pleaded not guilty to the charge of Fourth Degree Sex Offense and Second Degree Assault.

7. The district court judge entered a judgment of guilty against the Respondent as to both counts and sentenced him to six months incarceration with all six months suspended and placed him on supervised probation for one year. The judge further ordered criminal fines $165.00 be imposed upon the Respondent.

8. On or about January 7, 2014, The Respondent appealed the district court ruling to the Circuit Court for Baltimore County. A trial was scheduled for the Respondent's appeal for May 20, 2014.

9. On or about May 20, 2014, the Respondent, who was represented by counsel, entered an Alford plea for the Second Degree Assault charge in lieu of having a full trial. The charge for Fourth Degree Sex Offense was not prosecuted by the State.

10. The circuit court judge sentenced the Respondent to six months incarceration with all six month suspended and placed him on supervised probation, during which the Respondent was to have no contact with the victim and is not to be employed in massage therapy or any health care fields.

11. The Respondent's conviction for Second Degree Assault, a crime involving moral turpitude given the totality of the circumstances, constitutes violations of the following provisions of the Act: being convicted of or pleading guilty or nolo contendere to a felony or a crime involving moral turpitude, in violation of H.O. § 3-5A-11(a)(4);

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Based on the foregoing Findings of Fact, the Board concludes that the Respondent violated H.O. § 3-5A-11(a)(4) when he entered an Alford plea for second degree assault against a massage therapy client. The Board finds that, as defined, second degree assault in the context of a massage constitutes a crime of moral turpitude as it involves the intentional, nonconsensual touching of an individual. The act of assaulting a patient fits squarely within the bounds of the definition of a crime of moral turpitude. The Board determined that the Respondent should be sanctioned for this conduct. The Board found the decision of the criminal courts involved in the criminal aspects of this case persuasive as to the Respondent's threat to the public; specifically, the fact that he was not convicted of the sex offense nor required to register as a sex offender. Based on this fact and the Respondent's before the Board, the Board rendered its decision and chose not to permanently revoke the license of the Respondent. Therefore, based on the full record, and in accordance with its sanctioning guidelines, Code Md. Regs. 10.43.16.06B (2014), the Board issues the following Order.
