

Active & Healthy | April 2019

Panel Discussion: Population Health Equity Approach: Community Health Worker’s Role in the Advancement of Health Equity

Join the Maryland Office of Minority Health and Health Disparities, in collaboration with the Asian American Center of Frederick and Frederick Memorial Hospital, for a panel discussion on Thursday, April 25, 2019. The goal of the event is to highlight community health workers’ efforts through engagement in programs, policy level systems, and innovative strategies that have been implemented in the state of Maryland to address social determinants of health and to advance health equity. Click here to register.

Location: Frederick Memorial Hospital, 400 West 7th Street Frederick, MD 21701, Classroom #2

Session date / time: Thursday, April 25, 2019, 1:30 p.m. – 3:30 p.m.

Agenda:

Welcoming Remarks:

Dr. Noel Brathwaite, Director, Office of Minority Health and Health Disparities, Maryland Department of Health

Heather Kirby, VP Integrated Care Delivery, Frederick Memorial Hospital

Moderator:

Kimberly Hiner, MPH, Program Administrator Office of Minority Health and Health Disparities

Topics for the Panelists:

Individual Impact

Community Impact

Government & Policy Impact

The event is free of charge and pre-registration is required. Click here to register

