RE: New audit contractor

New Audit Contractor

Effective July 1, 2006, Myers and Stauffer LC will replace Clifton Gunderson LLC as the Maryland Medical Assistance Program's contractor for audit services.

Myers and Stauffer LC will assume responsibility for completing all audits not issued as of June 30, and all standard forms and cost report deadlines remain unchanged. All financial and statistical data submitted pursuant to COMAR 10.09.10.13 (nursing facilities), 10.09.29.12 (RTCs), 10.09.06.16 (hospitals) should be submitted to:

Myers and Stauffer LC
400 Redland Court, Suite 207
Owings Mills, MD 21117

Note: Please do not use this address before August 1, 2006.

Nursing Home and Hospital Appeal Boards

In conjunction with this transition, the Nursing Home Appeal Board and the Hospital Appeal Board have moved to a new address. Effective immediately, the address for the appeal boards is 300 W. Preston Street, Baltimore MD 21201.

The Program appreciates your cooperation through this important transition. Questions regarding the new audit contractor should be directed to James Miller, Deputy Director for Management and Program Analysis, at 410-767-5427.
