

Reapplying for Medicaid coverage

Follow these instructions if you:

- Are under 65
- Are a parent or caretaker relative of a minor child
- Are a pregnant woman
- Have a child enrolled in Medicaid
- Are a former foster care child

Reapplying for coverage is easy

You will reapply for Medicaid coverage once a year. When you get a letter saying you need to reapply (or if you think it's time for you to do so), you can reapply any of these ways:

- ✦ Online at MarylandHealthConnection.gov
 - △ Use this step-by-step guide (PDF) to create an account and complete your application. At the end, be sure to click "Proceed to Enrollment."
 - △ After you enroll, check your account's "My Inbox" to see if any additional documents are needed to verify your information.
- ✦ Call Maryland Health Connection at 1-855-642-8572 (TTY: 1-855-642-8573)
- ✦ Visit your local Department of Social Services office or Local Health Department
- ✦ Connect with a Certified Application Counselor
- ✦ Request a paper application by calling Maryland Health Connection and apply by mail

Save time by having this information ready

Have the following information ready when you reapply through MarylandHealthConnection.gov or in person. You can also download this checklist (PDF):

- ✦ Household monthly income (including pay stubs, W-2 forms, or tax returns if you have them)
- ✦ Social Security numbers or document numbers for each household member reapplying for coverage
- ✦ Date of birth for each household member reapplying for coverage
- ✦ Immigration information, if applicable

After you reapply

If you are eligible for Medicaid and re-enroll, your Medicaid coverage will continue.

Reapplying for Medicaid coverage

Follow these instructions if you are:

- Older than 65 and are not a parent or caretaker relative of a minor child
- Blind
- Disabled
- Living in a nursing facility
- A current foster care child

Reapplying for coverage is easy

When you get a letter saying it's time to reapply, the letter will come with a form that has your current application information. If you don't need to make changes to the information on the form, simply sign and return it.

If your information has changed or you did not receive the form, you can reapply online at marylandsail.org or at your local Department of Social Services office.
