

The OCME works closely with the local medical schools (University of Maryland and Johns Hopkins University), pathology residency programs, and the University of Maryland Graduate School to host rotations for their students and visitors.

The Baltimore City Crime Lab has an internship program and additional information may be found here. <https://www.baltimorepolice.org/about/forensic-science-and-evidence-services-division/forensic-science-careers-internships-and>