

TO: GOVERNOR O'MALLEY

THINK ABOUT IT

The submitted Exhibits clearly reveal the severe and excessive dangers Fracking has brought to our land, water, air, and the people. It cannot be said that the pain, misery, and unbearable suffering of the people has not be heard, it has, yet Fracking continues. It cannot be said that the cries of babies and children in tears as a result of Fracking has been eliminated with a kind and giving heart, an uncompromised compassion and concern, because it hasn't been. And lastly - death, its occurrence is constant and ongoing with Fracking. There seems to be no shame nor a discontinuance to the destruction.

A family moved to an area they loved. They found it to be highly suitable to their life style. They enjoyed their home and their land. It was everything peaceful and enjoyable to them. All that subsequently changed when Fracking invaded. The husband told an undeniable truth when he stated, "When we first moved here, it was heaven on Earth. Now it's hell on Earth."

What kind of monsters have we become that killing off the miraculous magic given to us by our Creator has become a thoughtless mindset; thereby, permitting destruction from one day to the next. The land, water, air, and the people belong to the Creator. The decisions we make must coincide with keeping sacred all that we have been given.

The valuable rock is buried deep below the Earth's surface. Was there a specific reason the Creator had for doing that. Think about it. Perhaps, it was part of the Earth's formation and designed to remain unchanged from its present location. Is it possible that it was never intended nor designed for our use. Think about it. Perhaps dislodging it/breaking it apart would lead to enormous and unknown damage to this physical world we live in. With earthquakes occurring, has damage begun? A similar process known as acidizing (uses hydrofluoric acids) poses yet another threat to the Earth. Will catastrophic results be seen?

Hydrofluoric Acids, if absorbed through the skin, even in minute amounts, and left untreated, it can cause death. It turns into a dense vapor cloud at 67.1°F that hovers near the ground and does not dissipate.

At this point, the earthquakes and acidizing are messages from our Creator, not warnings.

Listen to what he is saying.
