Webinars

July 15:

MAAETC: Accessing Pre-Exposure Prophylaxis \(PrEP\): Billing and Coding

The purpose of this webinar is to describe the process of coding for PrEP in WV and PA, discuss the implementation of billing for PrEP, and compare the different options for paying for PrEP. This series is targeted towards all community health centers in the MidAtlantic region however the presenters are from the states of Pennsylvania and West Virginia.

July 17:

NCSD: Clinic +/-COVID-19 Information Sharing Call

Recorded Webinars

Alliance for Health Policy: COVID-19 Webinar Series

This COVID-19 Webinar Series synthesizes the information in the headlines to provide cohesive insight into the status of the response and remaining gaps in the system that must be addressed to limit the severity of the COVID-19 outbreak in the United States.

National Conference of State Legislatures: COVID-19: State Efforts on Testing and Contact Tracing

The term contact tracing is new to many people due to the COVID-19 pandemic, but to public health professionals, it's old news. According to several national guidelines around states "reopening," adequate testing and contact tracing are key components to states' ability to manage COVID-19 cases going forward. This webinar explores state efforts to coordinate and expand testing and contact tracing.

Trainings

NACCHO: PrEP and Local Health Departments Educational Series

The educational series is geared towards local health department HIV and STD program managers and staff but is also a useful resource for healthcare providers, community-based organizations, and other key partners in HIV prevention. The educational series is organized into three modules, each consisting of webcasts (pre-recorded lectures), a webinar, a discussion guide, and supporting resources and tools.
