Bail & Legal Help Funds by City

Black Lives Matter National

A movement to end state-sanctioned violence, liberate Black people and end white supremacy forever.

Campaign Zero

Identifying solutions, providing research & data to organizers and policymakers, advocating to end police violence nationwide.

Equal Justice Initiative - The Equal Justice Initiative is committed to ending mass incarceration and excessive punishment in the United States, challenging racial and economic injustice, and to protecting basic human rights for the most vulnerable people in American society. They provide legal representation to people who have been illegally convicted, unfairly sentenced, or abused in state jails and prisons. They also provide re-entry assistance to formerly incarcerated people.

The Loveland Foundation - A nonprofit that provides financial assistance for Black women and girls seeking mental health support.

NAACP's Legal Defense and Educational Fund

Uses litigation, advocacy, and public education to work towards racial justice and equality for all Americans. The organization is fighting to protect voting rights, reform the criminal justice system, and improve equal access to education, among other civil rights causes.

National Bail Out Collective

The National Bail Out collective is a Black-led and Black-centered collective of abolitionist organizers, lawyers, and activists building a community-based movement to support our folks and end systems of pretrial detention and ultimately mass incarceration. We are people who have been impacted by cages — either by being in them ourselves or witnessing our families and loved ones be engaged. We are queer, trans, young, elder, and immigrant.

National Police Accountability Project

NPAP was created as a non-profit to protect the human and civil rights of individuals in their encounters with law enforcement and detention facility personnel. The central mission of NPAP is to promote the accountability of law enforcement officers and their employers for violations of the Constitution and the laws of the United States.

Public Justice Center

Uses legal advocacy tools to pursue social justice, economic and race equity, and fundamental human rights for people who are struggling to provide for their basic needs.
