

Oral Health and HIV/AIDS Resources for Patients and Providers

UNDERSTANDING THE NEED

Understanding how to best care for the oral health of People Living with HIV/AIDS is important for both medical and dental professionals. Providing culturally sensitive care, understanding medical and dental considerations, and being familiar with Ryan White and the insurance and reimbursement landscape can be challenging.

The Maryland Department of Health HIV/AIDS Oral Health Referral Program offers resources that can help providers and patients.

Scan this QR code to access resources for PROVIDERS:

Scan this QR code to access resources for PATIENTS:

Revised Date: 3/10/2025