Section 17-513.1. Examination of applicants, licensees, certificate holders, and trainees.

(a) In general. -- If, while reviewing an application for licensure, certification, or trainee status, or investigating an allegation against a licensee, certificate holder, or trainee under this title, the Board finds reasonable evidence indicating that the applicant, licensee, certificate holder, or trainee may cause harm to a person, the Board shall require the applicant, licensee, certificate holder, or trainee to submit to a mental health or physical examination by a health care practitioner, as defined in Section 1-301 of this article, designated by the Board.

(b) Consent. --

(1) In return for the privilege to practice counseling and therapy in the State, an applicant, a licensee, or a certificate holder is deemed to have:

(i) Consented to submit to an examination under this section, if requested by the Board in writing; and

(ii) Waived any claim of privilege as to the testimony or report of a health care practitioner who examines the applicant, licensee, or certificate holder.

(2) In return for the privilege to practice clinical alcohol and drug counseling in the State without a license or certification in accordance with Section 17-406 of this title, a trainee is deemed to have:

(i) Consented to submit to an examination under this section, if requested by the Board in writing; and

(ii) Waived any claim of privilege as to the testimony or report of a health care practitioner who examines the trainee.

(c) Confidentiality. -- A report or testimony regarding a report of a health care practitioner designated by the Board is confidential except as to contested case proceedings as defined by the Administrative Procedure Act.

(d) Effect of failure or refusal to submit to examination. -- The failure or refusal of an applicant, a licensee, a certificate holder, or a trainee to submit to an examination required under this section is prima facie evidence of the applicant's, licensee's, certificate holder's, or trainee's inability to practice competently, unless the Board finds that the failure or refusal was beyond the control of the applicant, licensee, certificate holder, or trainee.

Maryland Code Annotated
Health Occupations Article, Title 17.

(e) Costs -- Payment by Board. -- The Board shall pay the reasonable cost of any examination required of a licensee, certificate holder, or trainee under this section.

(f) Costs -- Payment by applicant. -- An applicant shall pay the reasonable cost of any examination required of the applicant under this section.
