UnitedHealthcare telehealth services:
Care provider coding guidance

Telehealth care

The following scenarios are intended as a guide to help you understand how UnitedHealthcare will reimburse telehealth services by health plan for COVID-19- and non-COVID-19-related care.

Providers are responsible for accurate claim submissions, in accordance with state and federal laws and UnitedHealthcare's reimbursement policies. The scenarios are not intended to cover every telehealth service you may perform. As such, please see UHCprovider.com and UnitedHealthcare's reimbursement policies for Medicare Advantage, Medicaid and commercial. Medicaid state-specific coding may apply and differ from those illustrated in these examples.

Please refer to UHCprovider.com/covid19 for additional information on COVID-19 diagnosis-related claims.

Information current as of Dec. 21, 2020

Medicaid state-specific rules and other state regulations may apply. For Medicaid and other state-specific regulations, please refer to your specific state's UnitedHealthcare Community Plan website. For more details, see UHCprovider.com/covid19.

Telehealth guidance by health plan

Medicare Advantage	Medicaid	Commercial
During the national public health emergency (NPHE) period, providers can bill with the place of service they would normally have billed had they done the services in person, along with the appropriate telehealth modifier, as directed by CMS. (i.e., 95, GT, GQ, G0 modifier). Medicare Advantage plans will continue to follow current CMS guidelines in allowing the current CMS Telehealth List, including the expanded CMS code list for telehealth services and billing requirements. Effective Jan. 1, 2021, certain UnitedHealthcare Medicare Advantage plans will allow certain Centers for Medicare & Medicaid (CMS)-eligible telehealth services when billed for members at home. For plans with this telehealth benefit, details will be outlined in the member's Evidence of Coverage (EOC) and other plan benefit documents. Outside of the originating site requirements for plans with the additional benefit, we'll follow the current CMS telehealth code list and billing requirements. Upon completion of the NPHE, eligible telehealth services will be considered for reimbursement when reported with place of service (POS) 02. Modifiers 95, GT, GQ or G0 may be appended but will be considered informational and not necessary to identify telehealth services. This is consistent with CMS billing and reimbursement guidelines.	Medicaid state-specific rules and other state regulations may apply. For Medicaid and other state-specific regulations, please refer to your specific state's UnitedHealthcare Community Plan website. For more details, see UHCprovider.com/covid19.	Starting Jan. 1, 2021, eligible telehealth services will be considered for reimbursement when reported with place of service (POS) 02. Modifiers 95, GT, GQ or G0 may be appended to telehealth claims reported with POS 02, but the modifiers will be considered informational and not necessary to identify telehealth services. View our updated telehealth policy.
